

St Antony's College, University of Oxford

SOUTH EAST EUROPEAN STUDIES AT OXFORD (SEESOX)

SEESOX/Alpha Bank Visiting Fellowship on the Political Economy of South East Europe for the academic year 2010-11

We seek a candidate who will undertake research on the political economy of SE Europe, in one of the following indicative areas: post-communist political, economic and/or social developments; foreign direct investment in the region; reform and European integration; developments in transport, energy, migration; regional cooperation and regional initiatives.

The candidate must submit a full research proposal which should be related to at least one of the above areas. Applicants must have completed a PhD study in one of the following fields of social sciences: politics, economics, political economy, international relations. They should also have a very good working knowledge of English.

The fellowship is for three terms, starting October 2010 until June 2011, and carries a stipend of £21,500 per annum.

Further details are available on the SEESOX website at www.sant.ox.ac.uk/seesox/index.html

Informal enquiries may be made to Dr Othon Anastasakis at: othon.anastasakis@sant.ox.ac.uk

The closing date for applications is Friday 19 February 2010. Candidates should submit a curriculum vitae, including the names, addresses and telephone numbers of two referees, and an outline of their proposed research to:

The Administrator
South East European Studies at Oxford
European Studies Centre
St Antony's College
Oxford
OX2 6JF
United Kingdom
Fax: +44 1865 274478
or email: julie.adams@sant.ox.ac.uk