

Asian Studies Centre, St. Antony's College, University of Oxford

Hilary Term 2011

South Asian History Seminars

All Seminars are held on Tuesdays at 2.00pm in The Fellow's Dining Room, (unless otherwise stated) in the Hilda Besse Building at St Antony's College

- Week 1*
17th January Professor Yunas Samad (Bradford University)
Military, Politics and Democracy in Pakistan
- Week 2*
24th January Professor Ishtiaq Ahmad (Qaid-e-Azam Fellow, St. Antony's College)
Afghanistan: Rethinking Conflict Resolution
- Week 3*
31st January Dr Sanchari Dutta (University of Oxford)
Chronicles of Captivity: Prison Memoirs and Inmate Society in the Prisons of Colonial India, 1900 – 1930s
- Week 4*
7th February Maria-Magdalena Fuchs
From Karbala to Calvary. Muslim-Christian Controversies in Colonial Punjab
&
Noelle Richardson
Dr. Jose Gerson Da Cunha: Orientalist Knowledge in Late Colonial India.
- Week 5*
14th February Rajpreet Atwal
Who is a Sikh?: The Partition of the Punjab and the Question of Sikh Identity
&
Radhika Madhani
- Week 6*
21st February Dr Stephen Legg (University of Nottingham)
An International Anomaly: The League of Nations, India and its Princely Geographies
- Week 7*
28th February Dr Evrim Binbas (Royal Holloway)
The King's Two Bodies in the Timurid Political Theology
- Week 8*
6th March Agnibho Gangopadhyay
The Calcutta Aporia: how one may write city and revolution into histories
&
Ayesha Mehta
The Ahmadiyya Muslim Community in colonial and postcolonial India

All are welcome

Convenor: Dr Faisal Devji
Enquiries: e-mail: asian@sant.ox.ac.uk or tel: 01865-274559