Many countries encourage the making of charitable gifts by allowing them to be deductible for tax. We suggest that you seek expert advice if you live outside the UK. There are a number of ways money can be sent to the UK. We recommend the following:

Regular gifts You can give instructions to your bank to make regular payments to our bank. There will be bank charges both ends. Donors may wish to ask for the slowest transfer service available which would be the most economical option. We suggest that payments are made quarterly or less frequently to minimize the impact of bank charges on both parties. Alternatively, you may prefer to make a credit or debit card donation online. Please visit the Giving page on our website (www.sant.ox.ac.uk/development/giving.html) to make a secure online credit card donation.
