

ST ANTONY'S COLLEGE

Visiting Parliamentary Fellowship Seminar, Hilary Term 2007

Climate Change and International Conflict

Tuesdays at 5pm in the Nissan Lecture Theatre

22 January: Climate Change: Manageable Problem or Looming Catastrophe?

Lord (Dick) Taverne (Chairman, Sense About Science trust)
Rt Hon. John Gummer, MP (former Environment Secretary)
Professor John Gray (LSE)

29 January: The US versus China?

Lord (Charles) Powell (former Private Secretary to the Prime Minister)
Jock Whittlesey (US Embassy Counsellor for Environment)
Dr Jimin Zhao (Environmental Change Institute, Oxford)

5 February: Can Europe Lead?

Linda McAvan, MEP (Environment, Public Health & Food Safety Committee)
Sir Kenneth Collins (Chair, Scottish Environment Protection Agency)
Baroness (Joyce) Quin (former MP and Minister for Europe)

12 February: Energy security in the wider Europe.

Ian Taylor, MP (former Minister for Science and Technology)
Professor Dieter Helm (New College, Oxford & Chairman of the Academic Panel of DEFRA)
Professor Jonathan Stern (Oxford Institute for Energy Studies)

19 February: Climate Change and the 'Bottom Billion'

Kevin Watkins (Director, Human Development Report Office, UNDP)
Professor Frances Stewart (Director, International Development Centre, Queen Elizabeth House)
Professor William Beinart (St Antony's)

26 February: Drift or decision?

Elliot Morley (former Environment Minister)
Christopher Huhne, MP (Liberal Democrat spokesman on Home Affairs and formerly on Environment) tbc
Professor Tom Burke (Imperial College and UCL, London; environmental policy adviser, Rio Tinto and former Director of the Green Alliance)

Convenors: Professor David Marquand, and Dr Alex Pravda with St Antony's Visiting Parliamentary Fellows Baroness (Joyce) Quin and Ian Taylor MP,