

Trinity Term 2009
'Rethinking Gender in the 21st Century:
Masculinities, Well-being and Health' Seminars

Week2 - Week5, Wednesdays, 5pm
Dahrendorf Room, St. Antony's College, Oxford

This ground-breaking seminar series, sponsored by the Conferences and Speakers Fund of St. Antony's College, explores the impact of masculinities on well-being and health. The lectures will be given at 5pm on Wednesdays of week 2 to week 5 in the Dahrendorf Room, St Antony's College. Enquiries and registration requests may be directed to Yiu-tung Suen (e-mail: yiuen@sant.ox.ac.uk).

Week2 Trinity Term 09 - 6 May (Wednesday) 5pm

Prof. Alan White
World's First Professor of Men's Health
Director, Centre for Men's Health, Leeds Metropolitan University
6 May: What's All This Fuss about the Health of Men?

Dr. Steve Robertson
Reader in Men's Health, Centre for Men's Health, Leeds Metropolitan University
6 May: Lay Men, Health and Masculinities

Week3 Trinity Term 09 - 13 May (Wednesday) 5pm

Dr. Kate Davidson
Co-director, Centre for Research on Ageing and Gender, University of Surrey
Past President, British Society of Gerontology
13 May: 'It Came by Itself, It'll Go by Itself': Older Men's Attitude to Health and Illness

Dr. Jonathan Scourfield
Senior Lecturer, Cardiff School of Social Sciences
13 May: Gendered Suicide in the Context of Relationship Breakdown

Week4 Trinity Term 09 - 20 May (Wednesday) 5pm

Prof. Anthony Coxon
Emeritus Professor of Sociological Research Methods, University of Wales
Visiting Professor, School of Social Sciences, Cardiff University
Honorary Professorial Research Fellow, University of Edinburgh
20 May: 'Something Sensational ...': The Sexual Diary as a Tool for Mapping Gay Men's Detailed Sexual Behaviour

Dr. Richard de Visser
Lecturer in Psychology, University of Sussex
20 May: 'That's Not Masculine': Masculine Capital and Health-related Behaviour

Week5 Trinity Term 09 - 27 May (Wednesday) 5pm

Dr. Robert Williams and Dr. Alistair Hewison, School of Health and Population Sciences, College of Medical and Dental Sciences, University of Birmingham
27 May: 'Being a Father...is the Embodiment of Everything I do': African Caribbean Fathers' Accounts of Fatherhood and Health

Dr. Ellen Annandale, Reader in Sociology, University of Leicester
Editor-in-Chief, Social Science & Medicine (2004 – present)
27 May: Men's Health and Women's Health: Pulling Together or Tearing Apart?