

ST ANTONY'S COLLEGE

RUSSIAN AND EURASIAN STUDIES CENTRE
MONDAY SEMINAR
HILARY TERM 2012

Twenty Years of Post-Communism in the Former Soviet Union

Convenors: Paul Chaisty & Alex Pravda (St Antony's College)

SESSIONS ARE HELD ON MONDAYS AT 5 P.M. IN THE NISSAN LECTURE THEATRE
ALL ARE WELCOME

16 January: Nikolai Petrov (Carnegie, Moscow), Elections as a mirror image of Russian state and society, 1989-2011

23 January: Neil MacFarlane (St Anne's), Political development and state-building in Georgia: the last twenty years

30 January: Jeffrey Kahn (Southern Methodist), After twenty years: Russia, human rights, and legal reform

6 February: Robert Legvold (Columbia), Russia and its post-Soviet neighbours: from empire to what?

13 February: Olexiy Haran (Kyiv Mohyla), Orange revolution and counterrevolution: whither Ukraine?

20 February: Leslie Holmes (Melbourne), Corruption in the post-Soviet space: the first two decades

27 February: Vladimir Pastukhov (St. Antony's College), The rise and fall of Russia's post-communist 'inner state'

5 March: Richard Sakwa (Kent), 1991, elections and the future of democracy in Russia

For any further information please contact richard.ramage@sant.ox.ac.uk

THIS SEMINAR SERIES IS SUPPORTED BY

RUSSIAN AND EAST EUROPEAN STUDIES

RUSSIAN AND EURASIAN STUDIES CENTRE