

MICHAEL R ROYSTER is a founding partner of Royster Advogados Associados, a Brazilian law office. He received his B.A. from Princeton University (1964) and his J.D. from Indiana University School of Law (1967). During 1992-93, he was a Mid-Career Fellow at St Antony's College, Oxford, researching Brazilian constitutional law, in particular presidential vs. parliamentary systems of government.

Michael was a Peace Corps Volunteer in Brazil from 1968-70, married a Brazilian, and then returned to practice law in New York and New Jersey.

Since August 1977, he has lived and worked as a consultant and lawyer in Brazil. His professional focus is on clients (companies and individuals) who do business in Brazil or with Brazilians. He is licensed to practice law in both Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo. He is fluent in English and Portuguese, with a working knowledge of Spanish, French, German and Italian.

Michael is a member of many organizations within the English-speaking community in Rio—he has been Chairman of the Board of the American School, and President of the American Society of Rio de Janeiro. From 2012-2017 he was the editor of The Umbrella, a monthly newsletter published by Rio's British and Commonwealth Society. He has a regular op-ed column (byline "Curmudgeon") in the Rio Times: www.riotimesonline.com.

Antonians can contact Michael on: mr.royster@uol.com.br