Title: Julian Paxton Collection

Name of creator: Paxton, Julian F.E. (b.1937)

Dates of creation of material: 1930 – 7 Oct 1989, predominant Feb 1948 –1980

Level of description: Fonds

Extent: 14 boxes

Biographical history: PAXTON, Julian, F.E., b 22 June 1937. Educated at Eastbourne College & Hertford College, Oxford where he read an MA in English Language and Literature. Civil Service Interpretership in Arabic. Honourable Secretary of the British-Yemeni Society. From 1959 – 1969 he was in the Regular Army Service, including service as an intelligence officer in Cyprus and a political officer in the West Aden Protectorate of Aden, Yemen. In 1969 he joined Shell International Petroleum Company and worked in government and public affairs functions in Qatar (two years) and Oman (ten years). On return to Shell's London Head Office in 1983 he was appointed adviser to operating companies in the Middle East and Francophone Africa. He retired in 1994 but still acted as a consultant to PDO and Oman LNG. After retiring he was commissioned to compile a history of PDO which was not published due to reasons of political sensitivity. He is currently the editor of the Oman Information Handbook published annually by the Ministry of Information, Oman. Married with two children born 1972 and 1974.

Scope and content: Petroleum Development Oman (PDO) company files mainly from the PDO office in Muscat, which was closed in 1976. The papers contain some reports, but mainly consist of subject and organisational files used by the staff of the Muscat office for reference. The papers also contains a small amount of Paxton's own research papers arising from his interest in Bertram Thomas an early explorer in Oman, and some printed materials relating to Oman and other Middle Eastern countries.

System of arrangement: The files are divided into three main sections: PDO papers; private research papers; and printed materials. There are further sub-sections within PDO papers, but there is little hierarchy within the papers due to their random nature. Where possible, original file titles have been retained. Where a file has been created or a file title ascribed, this is noted in the catalogue.

Access conditions: Open with a few closures at file level as indicated in the catalogue

Language of material: English, some Arabic.

Conditions governing reproduction: No restrictions on copying or quotation other than statutory regulations and preservation concerns. Copies of the PDO papers may be supplied for private research and study, but not for publication.

Custodial history: The files were retained by Paxton as part of a salvage operation and would otherwise have been destroyed when the PDO office closed in 1976.

Immediate source of acquisition: Received as a gift from Julian Paxton through Mr Ian Skeet in 1995
