Biographical history: Hubbard, Laurence Arthur (b.1936) Reverend

Born 30th September 1936 in Cusop, Herefordshire and attended Lyndale School St Albans and St George's School, Harpenden. From 1955 -1957 Laurence Hubbard was in the National Service R.A.S.C Singapore and Malayan Emergency. He next attended Queen's College, Cambridge from 1957 – 1960 where he read Law and Theology and then went on to train for the ministry at Wycliffe Hall, Oxford from 1960 -1962 and was ordained in 1962. Reverend Hubbard served his first parish as curate in Widcombe, Bath from 1962 - 1965 and married Wendy Margaret Garrad, a physiotherapist during this time in 1964. From 1965 – 1966 Reverend Hubbard trained to work as an overseas missionary at the Church Missionary Society Men's College in Chislehurst Kent. Reverend Hubbard's parents had both been CMS missionaries in Nigeria and this gave him the strong desire to pursue overseas missionary work. From 1966 – 1970 he became Vicar of St Peter's, Nyeri for the Mount Kenya Diocese and then assistant Vicar of St Georges, Nanyuki 1970 – 1973. In 1973 Reverend Hubbard became Vicar of St Mary in Pype Hayes, Birmingham until 1979. He then became Priest in Charge in Norwich-over-the-Water at St Georges Colegate and St Augustine until 1985. From 1985 – 1993 Reverend Hubbard was the Area Secretary for CMS in Canterbury and Rochester Dioceses, in Maidstone; during this time he was a short term diocesan Missionary for the Asaba Diocese, Nigeria in 1987. After Reverend Hubbard had completed his work as Area Secretary he considered overseas missionary work again and completed the CMS selection process and was offered three potential posts; either Northern Nigeria, Tripoli or Damascus. Having a great interest in Damascus and the surrounding area after leading Church Travel Pilgrimages and after studying Islamics at Crowther Hall, Selly Oak Colleges in Birmingham; he chose Damascus. In 1993 he was sent to be Chaplain in Damascus and Aleppo, Syria until 1996, where he was then asked by the Missions to Seaman (now Mission to Seafarers) to be the Vicar of SS Peter and Paul and Port Chaplain in Aqaba, Jordan. In 2000 Reverend Hubbard retired and now lives in Quedgeley, Gloucester with his wife Wendy, they have three married sons.
