Level of description: Fonds

Extent: 13 boxes

Biographical history: Melville, Robert Kenneth (b. 1918).

Born on the 14th October 1918 and was educated at Colchester Royal Grammar School. Col. Melville joined the Territorial Army, 23rd London Armoured Car Company in 1938 and then the 3rd County of London Yeomanry in 1939. In 1942, he was commissioned and appointed to the 47th Royal Tank Regiment where he served in Egypt until the regiment was disbanded in December 1942. Col. Melville was then posted to India as part of a training team, tasked with the conversion of an Indian Cavalry Regiment to Armour in 1943. He returned to Egypt in 1944 and was seconded to the Arab Legion as an armour training officer and in 1945 was transferred to the Sudan Defence Force to command the Equatorial Corps Company stationed in Wau. A year later, Col. Melville returned to the Arab Legion where he was involved in command and staff duties; including command of a Mechanised Regiment, security in Palestine and Jordan and skirmishes with the Israeli Army until 1949. He was promoted to the rank of Colonel in 1949, and appointed Staff Liaison Officer in London for the Arab Legion and worked as Glubb Pasha's personal representative until the Jordanian Government terminated British services in 1956. Col. Melville was privileged to read the lesson at Glubb Pasha's funeral at Westminster Abbey in 1986; he was also Godfather to Glubb Pasha's adopted daughter Mary. Died 18th January 2017.

Scope and content: Papers relating to Col. Robert Melville's role as Staff Liaison Officer for the Arab Legion from 1949-1956.
