Biographical history: Parlby, Joshua (1889-1975) Colonial Financial Administrator.

Born 3rd March 1889. Educated at Manchester University and Trinity College, Cambridge, in Mathematics. In 1913 started work in the Indian Accounts Department, Military for the Government of India. By 1916 had become Deputy Controller of War Accounts at Simla. In March 1917 he was transferred to Iraq to serve as Sir Percy Cox's Financial Assistant, receiving a 'Mention in Despatches' in 1918 for his work. In 1919 he became the Deputy Financial Secretary to the Civil Commissioner in Iraq, being appointed to the rank of 'Officer of the Civil Division of the Order of the British Empire' in the New Year's Honours List of 1919, before becoming 'Auditor-General and Inspector-General of Accounts' in 1924. In 1925 his position was expanded to become 'Comptroller and Auditor-General' of Iraq, a position in which he served for 10 years until 1935. During this time, he lived at No. 119 Aliyah, a house he shared with other bachelor administrators, including at one point A.L.F. Smith (see Related Material). In 1935 at the end of his contract he left Iraq amid a back drop of colleagues being "economised", receiving the Third Class (Civil Division) of the Order of Al Rafidain in recognition for his services in Iraq since 1917. Later in 1935 he returned to India to work in the Financial Administration of the Government of India, rising to the rank of 'Military-Accountant General'. In the 1942 Birthday Honours List he received the award of the 'Companion of the Order of the Indian Empire' for his work. Married Elizabeth Stuart in a Baptist wedding ceremony on 8th September 1926. Died 7th July 1975.
