

Foreign Service
Programme

THE WARDEN'S SEMINAR

co-sponsored by the Foreign Service Programme, the Blavatnik School of Government and the Global Economic Governance Programme
Investcorp Lecture Theatre
St Antony's College
Tuesday, 16 May 5pm

The Sustainable Development Goals at Risk?

Multilateral Development System in a new Era

Richard Manning, former Chair of the OECD Development Assistance Committee, will assess the state of the multilateral development system following the major replenishments of 2016, the change of Administration in the US, pressures on aid budgets worldwide, and their possible implications for progress towards the Sustainable Development Goals agreed in 2015.

Chair

Professor Margaret MacMillan, Warden of St Antony's College