

ST ANTONY'S COLLEGE

62 Woodstock Road, Oxford OX2 6JF, UK

The Sudanese Programme

[Sponsored by the Middle East Centre and Africa Studies Centre]

Conference on

The Future of Higher Education in the Two Sudans

[In Collaboration with the Centre for Comparative and International Education,
Department of Education, Oxford University]

Nissan Lecture Theatre, St Antony's College

Saturday 4th June 2016

9.00 am – 7.00 pm

Provisional Programme

- | | |
|---------------|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9.00 – 10.00 | Registration – Coffee, and tea (the Buttery, Hilda Besse Building) |
| 10.00 – 10.15 | Introduction by Dr Ahmed Al-Shahi and Professor David Johnson |
| 10.15 – 11.00 | Professor Gasim Badri (Vice Chancellor, Ahfad University, Omdurman) Higher Education in Sudan: Its Problems and How to address them. |
| 11.00 - 11.30 | Coffee, the Buttery, Hilda Besse Building |
| 11.30 – 12.15 | Dr Muhammed Jalal Hashim (Institute of African and Asian Studies, University of Khartoum) Writing Standard in M.A. & Ph.D. Theses in Sudanese Universities; Case Studies from Khartoum University, Sudan University for Science & Technology and Al-Nilein University. |
| 12.15 – 1.00 | Professor David Johnson (Centre for Comparative and International Education, Department of Education, Oxford) |

University and Professorial Fellow, St. Antony's College; and Co-organizer of the conference)

Is the educational curriculum is successful in preparing Sudanese Students for social and Economic Futures?

1.00 – 2.00

Lunch (Dining Hall, St. Antony's College)

2.00 – 3.00

Mr. Ian Leggett (Executive Director, Windle Trust International, Oxford)

The Role of Higher Education in Contributing to Equity and Sustainability in the Republic of South Sudan.

Dr. Laura Mann (Assistant Professor, London School of Economics and Political Science, University of London)

Higher Education and Market Logic: A Story of Self-regulating Trouble

3.00 – 3.45

Professor Pauline Elaine Riak (Professor of Sociology and Deputy Vice-Chancellor, Juba University, Republic of South Sudan)

Building Higher Education in South Sudan: Experiences of the University of Juba

3.45 – 4.15

Tea (Hilda Besse Building)

4.15 – 5.00

Professor Marial Awou Yol (Dean, Faculty of Social and Economic Studies (Juba University, Republic of South Sudan)

Financing of Higher Education in South Sudan: Financing the Future

5.00 – 6.00

Comments, and Questions and Answers.

6.00 – 7.00

Reception (the Buttery, Hilda Besse Building)

ALL WELOCOME

[Booking to attend the conference is necessary]

In case of queries, please contact Dr Ahmed Al-Shahi:

ahmed.al-shahi@sant.ox.ac.uk

Tel: 01865- 284707, International: +44+1865 284707

Please observe

The Sudanese Programme follows the Chatham House Rule:

“When a meeting, or part thereof, is held under the Chatham House Rule, participants are free to use the information received, but neither the identity nor the affiliation of the speaker(s), nor that of any other participants, may be revealed”