Welcome to the April 2021 E-Newsletter, in which you can find the latest updates from the College, and news of our alumni around the world, as well as several features on College Life - from the GCR, the Lodge and more.

Trinity term starts next week, and with the weekly seminars and lectures available online, we would welcome you to join us. Our College Calendar can be found here.

All the best from Woodstock Road, and we wish you and your loved ones the best of health,

Martyn, Sara and Wouter

The Development Team
Event: Vaccine Diplomacy and the Geopolitics of Influence

‘On behalf of the Warden of St Antony’s College, we are delighted to invite you to a webinar on ‘Vaccine Diplomacy and the Geopolitics of Influence’, 12 May, 5pm GMT.

Update on the Hilda Besse Renovation and Re-landscaping Campaign

‘The campaign to renovate and re-landscape the Hilda Besse Building and the neighbouring central quad for current and future generations of Antonians is reaching its final stages.’

Notes from the Lodge (Malcolm Tyrrell)

‘Throughout the pandemic the Lodge has remained open to provide all relevant services which we provide during normal times.’

Nigel Meir Visiting Fellowship

‘The Middle East Centre was fortunate to offer this academic year a Visiting Fellowship to Dr Hadeel Abu Hussein.’

GCR Update from Devika

‘The student body and the staff have worked hard to keep spirits up and Covid at bay.’

News from the Fellows

Updates from our Fellows and new books by Fellows.

Obituaries

Tributes to members that we have lost.

Alumni Updates

St Antony’s Looks at the World Podcasts

We have produced ten podcasts so far in our series, on a range of subjects. Our latest is with Professor Paul Betts on Ruin and Renewal.

The Antonian Fund

‘As always, donations of all sizes are greatly appreciated, and now more than ever can have a crucial effect on the lives of students here at St Antony’s.’

Leaving a Gift in Your Will to St Antony’s

‘St Antony’s depends on the generosity of its friends and supporters to continue to flourish.’
