

Modern Morocco Research Workshop

Fellows' Dining Room

St Antony's College, Oxford

12th March 2010

Provisional Programme

09.30-09.45: Introduction and Welcome

09.45-11.15: Session 1: History and Economics

Representations of Shaykh Ma al Aynin in French and Spanish colonial writings and official discourse between the 1880s and the 1930s

Berny Sèbe (Birmingham University)

Moroccan Economic Development Strategies in the Age of Globalisation and competitiveness.

Mohammed El Katiri (Defence Academy UK)

State-private sector symbiosis in Morocco

Farid Boussaid (Oxford University)

11.15-11.30: Coffee Break

11.30-13.00: Session 2: Politics and Society: Islam, Justice and Education

The significance of l'Instance Équité et Réconciliation for transitional justice measures and political reform in Morocco

Rachel Linn (Cambridge University)

The Movement for Unicity and Reform (MUR)

Emilie Francois (Oxford University)

Tensions of translation in the Tower of Babel: the teaching of science in the Moroccan state school.

Charis Boutieri (Princeton University)

13.00-14.00: Lunch

14.00-15.30: Session 3: Political Parties and Party Politics

Party System Institutionalization and Democratization in North Africa - Initial findings from Morocco

Lise Storm (Exeter University)

The Party of Authenticity and Modernity (PAM): an old or new phenomenon?

Ferdinand Eibl (Oxford University)

The Amazigh Movement, electoral processes and the party system in Morocco

Angela Suarez Collado (Autonomous University of Madrid)

15.30-15,45: Tea Break

15.45-17.15: Session 4: Society and Ethnography

Changing landscapes: the moral economy of migration in the Moroccan Rif.

Laia Soto Bermant (Oxford University)

The social world of women in Tinjdad and an alternative understanding of gender equality.

Katja Zvan (Oxford University)

Psychiatry as an ideology of modernity: a clinical ethnography of a psychiatric hospital in Morocco.

Charlotte van den Hout (University of California San Diego)

17.15-17.30: Concluding Remarks