

NOA LANDAU

EDITOR-IN-CHIEF OF HAARETZ ENGLISH

WHAT CHALLENGES DOES ISRAEL FACE IN THE WORLD TODAY?

Photo: Yael Engelhart

What are the key issues affecting the political climate in Israel?

How is Israel's relationship with the US changing in the Trump era?

What is the future of Israel's relationship with the Jewish Diaspora?

How can traditional media stay relevant and authoritative today?

5.30pm on 27th November 2017

Middle East Centre, St Antony's College

Noa Landau is the editor of Haaretz's English edition, the paper's incoming Diplomatic Correspondent, and formerly Head of the Haaretz News Department. Prior to Haaretz, Landau worked as a news reporter and editor at a variety of media outlets in Israel since 2001, including Galei-Tzahal, Channel 10 and Maariv. She was a 2016 fellow at The Reuters Institute for the Study of Journalism at the University of Oxford.