Foreign Policy in Pluralist Societies: Lessons from the Canadian Experience

Ambassador Jillian Stirk

Friday, 6th November

5:00 – 6:30 PM

Deakin Room, St Antony's College

Are pluralist societies more engaged in shaping foreign policy? Do communities of global citizens shape the international perspective of governments? Jillian Stirk will explore recent experiences in Canadian foreign policy and address how the diverse nature of Canadian society influences Canada's role in the world.

Convenor: Dr Halbert Jones
