Dear Antonians,

Welcome to the June 2021 E-Newsletter, in which you can find an update on a challenging year from the Warden, a look at our magnificent new landscaping project and how you can help, seven new student projects funded by the Antonian Fund, a students' view from the GCR, our latest Fellows books and news, updates from our Alumni around the world and how you can stay in touch with the College (and help improve our communications).

All the best from Woodstock Road, and we wish you and your loved ones the best of health,

Martyn, Sara and Wouter

The Development Team

Contents

- Letter from the Warden

  ‘As we come to the end of another very strange - and challenging - year, I write to bring everyone up to date with what has been going on in the College.’

- Update on the Hilda Besse Renovation and Re-landscaping Campaign

View of the landscaping of the quad and the refurbished Hilda Besse Building. More images of the re-landscaping can be found in our online gallery.
'Trinity Term 2021 has been a period of profound transformation for the physical space of St Antony's.'

GCR President Update

'We hope to capitalize on the changing tide to build an even stronger community this coming academic year.'

Antonian Fund Update

'Despite a difficult year due to the ongoing global pandemic, the Antonian Fund was able to sponsor seven successful projects which supported the student body.'

News from the Fellows

Updates and new books from our Fellows.

Obituaries

Tributes to members that we have lost.

Alumni Updates

St Antony's Looks at the World Podcasts

We have produced ten podcasts so far in our series, on a range of subjects. Our latest is with Professor Paul Betts on Ruin and Renewal.

We also have a video link to the recent cross-centre webinar on Vaccine diplomacy and the geopolitics of influence.

Leaving a Gift in Your Will to St Antony's

'St Antony's depends on the generosity of its friends and supporters to continue to flourish.'

Staying in touch with St Antony's

We have active social media accounts on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram, plus a professional network on LinkedIn.

It is your last chance let us know your thoughts on our communications via our survey.

During term time, we send a weekly bulletin of events at the College, which you can opt into.
