There is also some correspondence between Gertrude Bell and Arthur Hirtzel. These letters may be contained within this collection due to Lady Bell's involvement in editing the letters of Gertrude Bell for publication or Cox may have obtained them at the time they were written. The letters from Gertrude Bell are mainly political in nature, updating Hirtzel and Cox as to the political situation in Baghdad. There is also some correspondence concerning the dismissal and relocation of H St J Philby (for example 5/36-5/39) as well as the arrest and deportation of Saiyid Yalib Pasha and the arrest of Shaikh Khazal Khan (see especially file 7). Later correspondence in file 9, after

Sir Percy Cox's death, mainly relate to Lady Cox's efforts as editor of the letters of Gertrude Bell.
