Biographical history: Sichel, Peter Robert (b.1946)

Born 9th September 1946 in Pinner, Middlesex. Childhood spent in Libya, Scotland and Hong Kong. Became a novice De La Salle brother and adopted the name Brother Peter Aelred. Left the Order in 1964. Joined 21 SAS Regiment (Artists) TA in 1965, and was a founder member of R Squadron 22 SAS Regiment in 1967. Joined D Squadron, 22 SAS Regiment in 1970 and served in Dhofar on Operation Storm. Became a contract officer in Firqat Force, Sultan of Oman's Army. In 1975 joined the Civil Aid Department of the Wali of Dhofar's Office and was the supervisor for the post-war development of the jebel. During this period completed the first demographic survey and tribal breakdown of Dhofar. He coordinated the disaster relief program following the cyclone of 1977. In 1980 became Director of Operations of the Musandam Development Committee, and completed the first demographic survey of Musandam. Left Oman in 1984, and after a spell in London became a Registered General Nurse specialising in critical care, in which he has a degree. Retired in 2006, and wrote a book "A Monk in the SAS" (under a nom de plume), which describes his life until 2015. In 2018 he became editor of Mars and Minerva, the Journal of the Special Air Service Regiment. Married with one son, his interests include animal rescue and gardening.
