Studied at Caledonian Wireless College, Glasgow and Clerk with North Scotland Bank Wilshire 1926-1931. Enlisted in Hamilton in Scots Guards for 3 years' army service in the colours and 9 years' army reserve service in 1931. Guardsman in Scots Guards, 1931-1934 and during this time obtained Army First Class Certificate and PMG in Radiotelegraphy, French and Arabic. Constable in Dunbartonshire police 1934-1938. Sailed from Liverpool on SS California for Palestine on 29 Sept 1938. Served in Palestine Police in Nazareth and Jerusalem as a British constable and wireless telegraph officer (Police service no. 1468) from 13 Oct 1938 – 19 Mar 1943. Married Nurse Grace Purves in Jaffa, 31 Dec 1940. Sailed from Port Suez, 20 Mar 1943, on SS Malloja round Cape of Good Hope in convoy and arrived in Liverpool on 6 Jun 1943. Worked briefly in England as an Industrial X-Ray Operator 1943-1944. Called up 1 Feb 1944 and went to OCTU training and offered commission in Royal Signals Corps – decided not to take it and returned to Scots Guards until demobilisation. Worked for NAAFI (Navy, Army and Air Force Institutes) in Germany 1946-1947. Worked as a ground radio operator for BOAC with flying boats in Egypt and Malta and then at the airport in Hounslow, 1947-1949. Wireless Telegraphy Operator with Control Commission for Germany, Civil Aviation Branch, under the Foreign Office, 1949-1950. Water Bailiff on River Tweed in Peeblesshire, 1950-1951. Locust Officer, Desert Locust Control, working in Aden, Somaliland and Kenya, 1951-1953. Assistant Superintendent, Government of Qatar Police Department, Radio and Traffic Section, 1953-1954. Survey Engineer with the Marconi Company involved in setting up independent television masts all over Britain and in surveying for satellite services in BFE bases in Germany, Malta and Aden, 1956-1973. Also carried out surveys of sites for national satellite services in Cyprus, Iran, Libya, Kuwait, Kenya, Malaysia and Trinidad. Clerk to Great Baddow Parish Council, Chelmsford, Essex 1973-1977. Died 17 Apr 1977 at St John's

Hospital, Chelmsford, Essex. John Poole was also a keen fly fisherman and fishing fly tier with an international reputation. He wrote and published articles about fly fishing in British periodicals like "Trout & Salmon" and "The Angler" and in European fishing journals as well as writing a weekly fishing column in the "Essex Chronicle" in the 1970s. He was also the author of short stories broadcast by the BBC and of sporting episodes in boys' comics, "The Hotspur" and "The Wizard".

Scope and content: Papers, photographs and artefacts relating to John Poole's service as a British Constable and Wireless Telegraph Officer in the Palestine Police from 1938 to 1943. Papers relating to his police work include daily crime reports, summaries of Arabic and Hebrew press items, a propaganda leaflet and curfew order poster, as well as a Palestine Police Old Comrades' Association newsletter from 1955. The collection also contains a number of pages from the Palestine Post from the early and later stages of World War Two and a number of broadcasting service agreements from the Palestine Broadcasting Service. The photographs cover both his police service and general life in Palestine, as well as his subsequent work in Qatar, as well as some slides of Iran in 1956. There is also a small collection of artefacts dating from his service in Palestine including badges, buttons, coins, police whistle and a General Service medal.
